"The Nervy Dentist"

Two-reel Century Comedy

Starring CHARLES DORETY

CHARLEY is a "yanking" fine dentist, whose sweetheart, Bartine he is kept from seeing, due to a cranky father. The father is a physician who promises to give Charles his daughter if he brings in plenty of clients. So Charley, desperate to win the apple of his eye, goes forth to win by fair means or foul.

His first trick is a "slippery" one. He gets some bananas and drops them wherever someone can step on them. After getting a few customers for the doctor he attempts a new one. He pastes a silver dollar to the street, and when a person attempts to pick it up he lets his old flivver bump right into them. In this way he rounds up several more customers, but his good work goes to naught when he unknowingly runs into the doctor himself!
